BOND TOTAL BUYS THE BOMBER

Heads Treasury Loan

OXSHEER SMITH
Treasury Representative in War Bond Drive.

Oxsheer Smith, President of the Citizens National Bank, as War Loan Director for 4 counties, was the outstanding Treasury Representative in Texas in the current campaign to sell government securities.

With the April War Loan Drive only a week old Mr. Smith has seen his own city rally to his leadership and buy almost a million dollars in war bonds.

It is the Second War Loan Drive in which Mr. Smith has been responsible for sales in 4 counties Milam Bell, Robertson and Leon. In the First War Loan, Mr. Smith's territory bought $3,199,222 in war bonds. Of this amount $2,579,000 were subscribed by the banks. This is a fine tribute to Mr. Smith's financial leadership and ability to get maximum co-operation.

Mr. Smith has been the moving spirit in both recent treasury campaigns. Local workers have been inspired by talks he had made, creating enthusiasm and this has resulted in a larger measure of co-operation than has been known in any previous campaign. The net results is an unprecedented public response to the need of the government in financing the war.

Mr. Smith, in his talks, has touched wisely upon the advantageous financial appeal of war bonds as well as upon the dramatic and emotional side.

In the beginning it was through his appreciation of the sacrifice of Sgt. John Wallace, who lost his life in battle over enemy lines in the South Pacific that led to the opening day of the bond drive as a tribute to his memory. In the meeting on Saturday night preceeding the opening of the bond drive he announced that Sgt. Wallace had received posthumously the Purple Heart decoration.

This morning at a coffee for bond workers he read a letter which came to him Saturday from R. G. Gilbert, President of the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas, congratulating him and Cameron in the purchase here of $8,000,000 in war bonds.

In a conversation with a representative of the Daily Herald this afternoon, Mr. Smith suggested that a people Adolph Hitler never liked nor understood will pay him tribute tomorrow on his birthday. The gift will be in the form of bombs known as block busters to be rained out of the bellies of bomber and fighter planes the patriotic dollars Cameron and Milam County citizens are digging deep into their pockets to get for their liberty and their freedom.

War Bond Rally At Marak Tonight

A War Bond Rally will be held tonight at the Parish School at Marak.

Committee in charge is making arrangements to entertain a large number of people and business and civic leaders of Cameron are urged to attend.

Emory B. Camp, Chairman of the County War Council will be the speaker.

DESTRUCTION HEAVY OVER REICH TUESDAY

Adolph Hitler's Birthday celebration in Germany was drowned out somewhat by British bombing missions.

Berlin was bombed.
Rostock was bombed.
Stitten was bombed.

The British lost 31 planes indicating that several hundred of the big ships dropped block busters on the German cities as the radio carried speeches by Goehring and Goebbels extolling the name of Hitler and in addition painting a none too bright picture of the war for the German people.

The raids occurred Tuesday night and Wednesday's news casts made no detailed mention of results obtained. The usually conservative British Air Command had made no statement.

Meanwhile in Tunisia the British 8th Army has occupied Enfidaville an important base in the narrowing circle into which Rommel has been pushed by the Allies.

The Allies shot down 28 more German planes over the battle lines in Tunisia. The American losses were listed at 8 planes.

The Germans have suffered heavy battle losses in the Caucasus region where the Russians have thrown them.

Wednesday President Roosevelt and President Camacho of Mexico are on American soil together. Their conferences are still in progress.

From General Douglas MacArthur's headquarters in Australia came another warning. Danger, real and threatening is causing much alarm there. The Japanese forces are growing rapidly, said the official spokesman for the South Pacific command.

SKODA WORKS POUNDED IN VIOLENT OFFENSIVE

The Royal Air Force lost 55 bombers over Europe Friday in what was said the most violent bombing since the attack on Cologne.

This time the great Czech armament works at Skoda in Czechoslovakia were bombed. In order to get in their deadly work the Wellington and Halifax four motored bombers flown by British pilots came in low over the target, disregarding anti-aircraft fire to partially ruin the factories built by the Czechs and now in German hands.

The raids were widespread touching Czechoslovakia, a 1200 mile trip, Germany and France.

The loss of bombers indicate that more than 500 took part in the raids.

Fierce fighting was in progress in Tunisia where the Allies have driven to within 30 miles of Bizerte and Tunis.

So grave has become the plight of the Axis armies that German radio admitted the situation in Tunisia is critical. Meanwhile the Allied air men are keeping up attacks on Italian ports. Sicily has been bombed again and several ships sunk or damaged. Naples has been hit again.

In the South Pacific the few airmen to get planes are hitting the Japs hard, sinking their ships.

A photograph of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Conley was found by E. M. Cook of Ben Arnold in his field 10 miles away from the Conley home which was destroyed by a cyclone here on April 8th.

With the photo was surplus food ration book belonging to R. C. Conley, father of Homer Conley.

The picture and the ration book were brought to The Herald by Mr. Cook. The picture is believed to be of Mr. and Mrs. Conley taken shortly after their marriage.

Two Brothers Serve In Armed Forces

Is Prisoner Of War

PVT. ALFRED H. GALLER

Pvt. Alfred H. Galler is a prisoner of war of the Japanese somewhere in the far east.

Pvt. Galler is a native of Buckholts and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galler of Buckholts.

He enlisted in the army in April 1941, and completed his training at San Diego, Calif. From California he went to the Philippine Islands and was stationed at Ft. Mills at the time the Japs attacked the United States. For a long time the family had no word from Pvt. Galler and they did not know whether he had lost his life or was taken prisoner.

Mr. and Mrs. Galler received a letter from the War Department in Washington on February 23, 1943, stating that their son was a prisoner of war.

Pvt. Galler is one of 2 sons of the family in the army. S.Sgt. Fritz R. Galler is now stationed at Camp Maxey at Paris, Texas.

The Business & Professional Women's Club met at their rooms Tuesday evening with the president, Mrs. Linda Perkins presiding. At the business session a report was made and many of the club members had engaged in the selling of War Bonds the past week. At the conclusion of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed in the dining room with Mrs. Edailia Payne as hostess.

COUNTY BOND TOTALS

Totals at 10 a. m. Thursday for the county was $1,641,967.75. The City of Rockdale came in with a report of $560,000 in War Bonds which does not include the bank quota.

Emory B. Camp, County War Council Chairman, said the campaign is exceeding all records.

Bond sales in the City of Cameron alone had reached $951,380.25 Thursday morning.

This figure does not include the bank subscriptions which are yet to be made. The grand total is that of individual purchases.

The sales for Wednesday alone were $127,312.25.

E. C. Cole, local chairman, has done an outstanding job and the workers are being praised for their share in the success of the campaign.

Scoffield Praises Bond Drive Here

HON. EMORY B. CAMP, Cameron, Texas:

"It was most gratifying to learn today that the citizens of Milam County had exceeded their goal in the Second War Loan Drive and I was overjoyed to know that they had exceeded their goal so early in nineteen day period. I wish I could be there in person to extend my thanks and appreciation to each and every citizen, but since I can not be there won't you extend my appreciation and thanks to them for me, and may I wish each and every one of you continuous success in your untiring efforts to furnish the sinews of war that the American Soldier may be the best equipped man on earth to carry the Red, White and Blue Flag across the seven seas.

Awarded Purple Heart

PFC. SHIRELY McLEAN

PFC. SHIRLEY McLEAN
CITED FOR HEROISM

Pfc. Shirley McLean, has been cited for heroism and awarded the Purple Heart.

The decoration was recently given Pfc. McLean who is recuperating from wounds sustained in battle in New Guinea where he had a share in the victory over the Japanese army in the early stages of the war in the South Pacific.

In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McLean he told of the award which he had recently received. He is improving and Mrs. McLean, the mother, told the Daily Herald this afternoon, that her son seems more cheerful now and they have hopes he may soon completely recover.

The Purple Heart was originally established by General George Washington at Newburgh, August 7, 1782, during the war of the Revolution.

Out of respect to the memory of General Washington and in recognition of his military achievements, the decoration was revived by the War Department on February 22, 1932, the two hundredth anniversary of his birth. It is awarded to persons who, while serving in any capacity with the army of the United States, are wounded in action against an enemy of the United States, or are killed in action, or who died as a result of wounds received in action.

This information was taken from a letter by General J. A. Ulio, Adjutant General of the Army to E. A. Wallace of Cameron whose son, Sgt. John Wallace was awarded the Purple Heart posthumously for his exploits in a bomber over enemy lines in the South Pacific war.

TOM HARMON SAFE

Tom Harmon, Michigan back and all American, was reported safe Saturday as he walked out of a jungle where his plane had been forced down. He is serving in the South American area.

Sgt. Frank Valka, Jr.
Writes Jimmy Marek
From Isle of Papua

Sgt. Frank Valka, Jr., has just written a letter to his friend, Jimmy Marek at the Laake Drug Store in Cameron.

In order that his many friends may know about him and the people here have word about the Island of Papua, the letter was sent to the Herald by Jimmy, Tuesday and we are giving extracts from it.

The Midget is being read by Sgt. Valka in Papua. He had just received a copy which took many days to arrive. In the paper he learned of the death of Gene Smith, city marshal, and expressed deep regret over the death of the late marshal.

Later Sgt. Valka learned from the Midget that sheriff Valter White had been inducted into service. He gets the impression that just about everyone here is in the army.

"So you are going out quail hunting," said Sgt. Valka. "Well, I'm out hunting a little bigger game. Maybe you've heard about them. They are yellow rats. I think I'll be out for a couple more years hunting them. In that period of time we expect to dispose of all the rats."

"I am still on the island of Papua and for how long is something no one can tell. The place has improved a lot, the food is better and the mosquitoes aren't as bad as they used to be and the weather is not as hot as it first seemed."

Sgt. Valka said he was sorry he couldn't tell more but of course military censorship makes it impossible.

The smaller figure for Friday was not unexpected.

TEXAS POWER &amp; LIGHT COMPANY

Providing for the Texas of Today... Planning for the Texas of Tomorrow!

At the time this is written (April 16th) the House is still working on the Agricultural Appropriation Bill. This measure is of vital interest to the people of our section. As this is an appropriation bill, it is prepared by a Sub-Committee of the Appropriations Committee. This Committee does not have any relation to the regular Committee on Agriculture of the House. There has been considerable dispute in regard to the action of the Sub-Committee. Personally, I feel that the Sub-Committee has exceeded its power and in a number of instances it has done substantial injury to the interests of agriculture. The Sub-Committee greatly reduced the total sum appropriated for agricultural purposes. In fact, this bill involves a reduction of approximately 45 per cent of the amount appropriated for the same purposes last year. Undoubtedly many of these reductions are justified, but I feel that some of them go much too far. For instance, the bill undertakes to completely wipe out "parity payments," crop insurance and a number of other items that have been very helpful to our farmers in the past. Most of us have long realized that it would be impossible to continue to get these payments. In the long run, the farmer must in my opinion get the value of his products in the market places and not from the government. If some of the "experts" here are given their way, they will keep the price of farm products down and give the farmer so-called incentive payments for the moment in an effort to get production that way rather by allowing fair farm prices. Some farmers seem willing to accept this proposal, but I want to warn every farmer in Central Texas that if this is done, his prices will be disastrously low the day the war ends.

Another item of general interest to our section is the provision in regard to Rural Electrification. The bill cuts the funds for this purpose by 33 1-2 per cent as compared to last year. The last year's funds were only a fraction of what they had previously been because of necessary reduction in the construction of R. E. A. lines due to the shortage of copper. Most everyone knows that the R. E. A. operations have been responsible for the great development of electrical service in the rural areas of our country. Prior to the establishment of the R. E. A. very few private power companies would supply electricity to farm houses at any price, and when they did, the cost was too great for the average family. The private companies said there was no profit in rural business. As soon as the R. E. A. was established, the private utilities began to offer service in the most thickly settled rural areas. At the same time they began to reduce their rates. As R. E. A. developed, the rates of the private companies were further reduced. With the creation of the Brazos Transmission Co-op, the private utilities cut their rates to rural co-operatives by approximately 60 per cent throughout Central Texas. To my mind these rate reductions clearly justify the work of the R. E. A. and of the Brazos Co-operative. Incidentally, the R. E. A. makes no grants to anyone. It only lends money to farmer co-operatives. These loans are being repaid. Unfortunately the war effort needs all the copper we can produce; therefore, we can not, until the war is over, expand or even complete existing R. E. A. Systems, but we do need to keep this agency in operation both to hold down the price of electrical energy and in order to be ready to carry on the program of conveying cheap electricity to all farmers as soon as the war is over.

The House is still in session (6:00 p. m.) and we are still considering the bill; so it is impossible to state at this time just what action will be taken on the various items involved. I sincerely hope, however, that those of us interested in the welfare of the farmers will be able to protect the reasonable interests of agriculture.

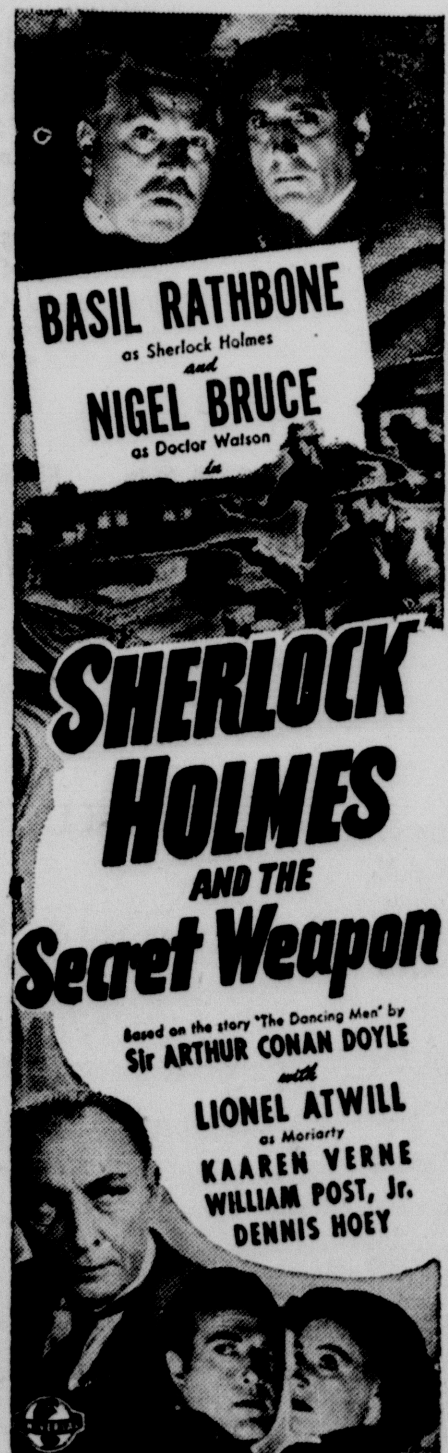

Mrs. R. J. Woodum has gone to Kingsman, Ariz., to be with her husband for a few months. She has been working in the Citizen's National Bank. R. J. Woodum is a Sgt. in the Air Corps stationed at Kingsman.

HITLER'S BIRTHDAY IS OCCASION FOR AIR RAIDS

All Nazi radio stations went off the air early Tuesday as hell broke loose over Europe with strong indications that United Nations airmen were attacking over a wide area of Hitler's Reich on the occasion of der fuerher's birthday.

Hitler, 54 years old Tuesday, was not due to make a speech but his faithful Goehring and Dr. Goebbels were pounding away trying to tell the German people that the blackest hour in German history has struck.

It was a different picture to that a year ago and two years ago when Hitler stormed at the world and promised destruction to his enemies.

Germany is a defeated nation. Although there were no reports concerning air raids over the Reich it was believed the British would not overlook the opportunity to "press home air attacks as they recently did on the occasion of a celebration in honor of Hitler.

Germany was expected to make a peace bid.

The mounting toll of German planes shot down in the Mediterranean had made of the recent air battles there the worst defeat for the Hun in this war. A total of 112 German planes, most of them transport planes, have been shot down in the past 48 hours. The new toll said 20 were shot down and of this number 12 were big transport planes.

Church bells will ring in England for Easter again for the first time in many months. Their peal will signify the end of fear of an invasion.

The war was at a standstill in Tunisia but on the Russian front fierce fighting was in progress. The airmen under General MacArthur were pounding away at Jap air bases.

Auto Owners Are Warned About New License Plates

Deputy Sheriff Carl Black requested the Daily Herald to say that Representatives of the State Police Department will be here soon to check automobiles for 1943 license plates.

Mr. Black said that many car owners apparently have not put these plates on their cars. In order to avoid penalties of the law, Mr. Black is warning car owners to act at once to have these plates installed.

The State Highway Department will file cases on any car not found with the new license plates.

Mr. Black said also his department may be called to enforce this law and action now will avoid complications later.

Sheriff Sarah White spent the week end in Paris with her husband, Valter, who is in the Army. She returned to Cameron Monday.

Sgt. George Doss and Miss Ann Tingle were married Monday afternoon in the office of Judge Jeff T. Kemp. Judge Kemp reading the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Doss will make their home at Paris, where Sgt. Doss is stationed at Camp Maxey.

Federal Reserve Bank Head Praises Cameron In Letter to Smith

Oxsheer Smith, War Loan Director for 4 counties, including Milam, has received a letter from R. G. Gilbert, President of the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas, thanking him for the outstanding job being done here in the sale of War Bonds.

Mr. Gilbert's federal reserve banking district, includes Texas, Oklahoma, portions of New Mexico, Arizona and Louisiana.

The letter to Mr. Smith was read at a coffee this morning for local bond workers.

"Willie Walker has just telephoned me to advise me that you have total orders from non-banking subscribers in excess of $800,000 from Cameron alone.

"This is the most outstanding job that has been called to my attention in the Second War Loan drive, particularly in view of the fact that the Milam County quota for non banks is $354,000.

"I simply wanted you to know how deeply I appreciate this fine record you have made, and I know that before this drive is over your county is going to be one of the outstanding spots in the entire Eleventh Federal Reserve District."

E. G. Stiles of Thorndale made a business trip to Cameron Monday.

IT'S 10 MINUTES TO MIDNIGHT!

Wake up Americans. . .
Your Country's Most Fateful Hour is Near

THE hour when the final die is cast, when decisive victory hangs in the balance. The hour which will decide the future of you and your children . . . a future of joyous freedom or a future of endless serfdom.

Yes, it is ten minutes to midnight. And when the first stroke of that fateful hour begins to sound, it will be too late to throw your weight into the fight. The time to do that is NOW.

Now, when your dollars can keep the production lines humming. Now, when your dollars can buy the tanks and guns and planes and ships our soldiers need to fight a winning war . . . the only kind of a war we can afford to fight. Now, while there are still ten minutes before midnight.

Your country is asking you to lend your dollars in greater amount than ever before. It is asking for 13 billions of dollars extra this month . . . 13 billions for the weapons of war to make sure that it is our side which dictates the peace.

If we do not win, the money you fail to lend now will be worse than useless to you. If we win, as we must, the money you lend now will be returned with interest . . . for you to spend on the good things of life . . . for you to enjoy in a free and safe world.

So dig down, Americans. Answer the challenge by buying War Loan securities this month with every idle dollar you have except what you need for the barest necessities of life.

Don't wait for the War Loan Volunteer. Beat the gun by going to your bank, investment dealer, Broker, Post Office, or bond booth today.

Have your money in your fist . . . the fist that can deliver the knockout blow to the Axis. But hurry . . .

For it is ten minutes to midnight . . .

The hour that can strike the knell of doom—or the blessed song of freedom.

Your dollars can call the tune.

Frank Krajca, 80, Is Badly Injured; Is In Newton Hospital

Frank Krajca, 80, was critically injured early this week when a land roller on his farm knocked him down and partially rolled over his body.

Mr. Krajca's neck was broken and chest bones badly crushed. He was rushed to the Newton Memorial Hospital and is now recovering. Mr. Krajca has two sons in the service.

While at the hospital to see Mr. Krajca, we noted a number of other acquaintances also in the hospital. There are 22 patients in the hospital.

To Hasten Victory

No American wants this war to go one minute beyond the time we can bring it to a victorious end. To hasten that victory—to save possibly the lives of millions of our boys on our far flung fronts—it is imperative that every American do his part in the Second War Loan. There is an investment to fit every purse. The most you can do is little enough compared with the sacrifice offered by our boys in service. They give their lives—you lend your money.

Roping Club to Resume Programs Here On Sunday

There is a 'salty' bunch of Brahma calves in the feed lot out at the rodeo grounds in Ledbetter Park and the Cameron Roping Club will hold its first roping Sunday afternoon beginning about 2 p. m.

John Batte requests all those who enjoy this good clean sport to put on their Western duds, mount their pony and meet at the court house square about 1:30 p. m. Sunday and ride in a body out to the grounds with the boys. This means young and old men, women, boys and girls.

The membership of the club this year is chiefly youngsters who are strictly amateurs but there will be on hand a few of the old timers like Mac Akers and John Batte who will show the boys the fine points of the game.

Beginning Sunday there will be held three ropings weekly: Tuesday and Thursday nights and Sunday afternoons. There will be no admission fees and the public is invited to come out any time.

A most enjoyable occasion was the reunion of the Henderson family Sunday with all the brothers and sisters and families present. A barbecue was enjoyed with all accessories. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Henderson were co-hosts at the Henderson home with the following present: Tom Henderson of Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wells of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Culpepper and son of Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Bonnett and family of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Beard and family of Hillsboro. An enjoyable day was spent together and many friends in Cameron are pleased to hear of this happy occasion as all the children are native citizens of Cameron where a host of friends wish them many such happy reunions.

G. C. Black of Gause was a visitor at the Herald office Friday morning and while here renewed his subscription to Herald for another year.

ALLIES IN 30 MILES BIZERTE AND TUNIS

Martial law has been clamped down on Sardinia in fear of an uprising.

The Daily Herald heard that Adolph Hitler had sent Gestapo chiefs into Italy to take over police administration.

The Italian people were becoming frantic as bombs laid waste to their cities and killed hundreds. Many were said waiting an opportunity to rise against the jackal Mussolini.

German students in Berlin displayed a placard stating that Hitler's government and principles are destroying the German people and their culture. The trouble arose over enforced army duty for the boys and war work.

The United Nations armies are within 30 miles of both Bizerte and Tunis. Heavy fighting is raging in the coffin corner to which the Germans have run. Italians have been left to fight rear guard action and are poorly equipped. They are surrendering in true fashion.

General Rommel has concentrated his best troops in the last stand area before Tunis and Bizerte. A mountain range hems in his army and bitter fighting is yet to occur.

The Germans are attacking with great fury.

Over in the South Pacific General Douglas MacArthur's fighting air men were attacking a 9 ship convoy of the Japs. One ship had been sunk and two others were listing badly and are sinking. The battle occurred off New Guinea.

In Washington the government has pledged General MacArthur all the air power he needs.

The RAF was carrying out widespread raids over Europe.

Lt. E. B. Hyde and wife have recently moved into the Atkinson apartments on West 13th Street.

Cole Calls Meeting Of Bond Workers For 9 a. m. On Monday

Mr. Cole also has invited Cameron newspaper publishers and Emory B. Camp, Chairman of the County War Council; H. M. Hefley, newly named War Finance Chairman for the county and Oxsheer Smith, District War Loan Director.

The purpose of the coffee will be to discuss further plans for sale of bonds. Mr. Cole says much work remains to be done as everyone will be given an opportunity to invest.

"War Against Mrs. Hadley" Memorable Story; On Tomorrow

Washington in wartime is the setting for a vivid story of a woman's soul, in "The War Against Mrs. Hadley," which brings Fay Bainter to the screen as the embodiment of many women who, when the war started, refused to be drawn into it until awakened to the truth about national defense. The picture, literally a cross-section of a woman's soul, is to play at the Cameron Theatre Thursday and Friday.

Miss Bainter in the title role plays a wealthy widow, who despite changes brought about by war, tries to live her life as usual. Her friends go into war work, leaving her lonely. Her daughter goes into a canteen, marries a soldier. Her son is drafted. When he is sent overseas she blames her lover, a government official. Then in a dramatic climax, she awakens to the truth, and throws her life into the conflict, in common with millions of other American women.

Human Story

Comedy and drama mingle in the down-to-earth human story. Miss Bainter plays her role with a deep conviction. Richard Ney, as the son makes good the prophecies made for him following "Mrs. Miniver." Young romance is furnished by Jean Rogers and Van Johnson, who make an engaging pair. Edward Arnold is compelling as the wealthy socialite's suitor, and Spring Byington plays a social leader turned war worker convincingly. Halliwell Hobbes as the butler who becomes an air warden provides much of the comedy. Dorothy Morris, Miles Mander and Frances Rafferty are other principals.

Harold S. Guequet directed with delicate skill and Karl Freund contributed interesting and artistic photography, and the musical score by David Snell is inspiring.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

Grandma Hoskins knows a lot about history—but when we asked her where the first brewery was built in America, she wouldn't take sides.

"You see," says Grandma, "wherever the colonists settled, one of the first things they thought about was food and beer... In fact, one reason why the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock was because the Mayflower was runnin' short of beer."

Well, that was a new one on us, but Grandma showed it to us

—just as it was written in the Mayflower's log.

And it seems that all through our early American history beer sort of tempered the hardships and helped to make us a tolerant, moderate people.

From where I sit, beer is the American drink of moderation and friendliness—kind of a symbol of our personal liberty.

THE 2nd WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

America....you've got to get tougher!

AMERICA—Let's be frank about it . . . so far, many of us back home have been fighting this war from an easy chair.

Many of us have bought War Bonds out of extra cash, out of money we didn't miss too much. We haven't been really tough with ourselves.

But this war is a hard, down-to-reality war. And many of our boys are dying in it.

We've got to buy MORE

So your government asks you to buy Bonds and more Bonds—to get really tough with yourself. We're asking you to give up the frills and "extras" for the rest of this war.

We know how human it is not to make sacrifices until the crisis drives us to it. In England they felt the same way until the bombs started falling. Now they can't do enough!

Bombs are such persuasive things. But just as persuasive ought to be the spirit of our brothers, sons, husbands—who are ready to give all. Think now . . . what are your dollars, compared to their lives?

If you could see

Look at it this way—suppose you had a magic carpet that could take you to Africa and New Guinea. Suppose you could hear the groan of American boys wounded, and American boys dying . . . Say now, how many Bonds would you buy?

That kind of war

THEY . . . are dying. And they will keep on dying until we drown the enemy in an overwhelming torrent of bombs, bullets, guns, tanks, planes, ships and shells.

That's why we're asking you, in this one month of April alone, to lend Uncle Sam 13 billions of dollars—by buying War Bonds. 3 billions of extra dollars—over and above any buying that you'd be doing anyway!

A lot of money

Of course, 13 billion dollars is a lot of money. It'll take sweat and tears to raise it. It'll mean going without now. But also—it will mean saving now—to buy later. It'll mean giving up everything you can't square with your conscience, so that we, us, our children, can have a better, more decent place to live in when this war is won.

The drive is on

So during this month of April, if someone calls on you to ask you to buy War Bonds in the 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE, will you buy to the limit—and then buy more?

Better yet, will you go to your Bank, Postoffice, or wherever you're used to buying your Bonds—and buy NOW? Will you lend extra money this month? Money that can hasten the day of Victory? Money that can help to save American lives—perhaps your son's or your brother's or your husband's—by helping to shorten this war?

Money buys money

Remember, what you're really buying with your money is still more money. For after all, these Bonds are money? Money plus! Every dollar you put into War

Bonds will bring you a dollar plus interest.

So the more Bonds you buy the better for you. Americans—Get Tough—with yourselves—for your country.

Comedy Galore In "Margin For Error" Cameron April 28

There's a new kind of comedy treat in store for moviegoers in 20th Century-Fox's "Margin For Error," a rollicking picturization of the Broadway laugh hit by Clara Boothe Luce, who wrote "The Women."

Featuring Joan Bennett, Milton Berle and Otto Preminger, the film arriving April 28 at the Cameron Theatre takes you on a hilarious tour through the New York consulate of the Nazis looking for laughs. And, men, it's murder!

The fun begins when the mayor a man with a sense of humor, assigns Milton Berle to guard the consulate. As a patrolman, Milton would rather throw a gag than twirl a night stick.

His big job is to protect the consul, Otto Preminger who, owing to circumstances, isn't as popular as a man might be. Indeed, owing to other circumstances, he isn't even popular with his pretty wife, Joan Bennett.

It seems that the consul, for all his love of country, loves to play even more. As he incurs gambling debts and such, he begins to tamper with official funds; but when the day of reckoning comes, he tries to pin the rap on one of his innocent assistants.

His wife comes to the rescue of the underling. Preminger goes after his wife. And Milton Berle, our true-blue bluecoat, goes after him—when he's not going after the blue-eyed maid. Thanks to the consul's—shall we say—obnoxious personality, there are a few more people gunning for the consul, too.

As a result, the hilarious climax is nothing short of merry, merry murder! Preminger doubled as director, working from a script by Lillie Hayward. Ralph Dietrich was the producer. Preview audiences say the Broadway stage hit is funnier than ever on the screen.

Also included in the featured cast are Carl Esmond, Howard Freeman, Poldy Dur and Clyde Fillmore.

Schools Open Drive To Buy 10,000 Jeeps

THE little jeep which is serving so nobly from Guadalcanal to Africa has become the symbol of the gigantic efforts of millions of American school children in their War Savings program.

Thousands of public, private and parochial schools soon will be displaying a certificate of honor from Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., signifying that they have paid for at least one jeep by buying $900 in War Stamps and Bonds.

Countless others will be flying the Schools At War banner awarded to schools with 90 percent pupil participation in War Savings.

Ten thousand jeeps and a hundred bombers! This is the new goal of America's schools as 30,000,000 children continue their Schools At War program under the auspices of the Treasury Department and the U. S. Office of Education.

More than 7,000,000 elementary and high school students from 30,000 schools have prepared special Schools At War scrapbooks for state and local exhibits.

War Stamp and War Bond purchases may reach a grand total of $300,000,000 for the school year.

Farm Youth of U. S. Looks to Tomorrow

TOMORROW'S farmers and farm homemakers are second to no school group in their enthusiasm for investing in War Bonds and Stamps to make sure their future is secure. Through the Schools At War program they are investing what they save and earn in War Stamps and Bonds.

First evidence of this is the amount the 4-H Club boys and girls and the FFA boys invested in war savings in 1942 from "Victory Pig" and other projects. A million and a half 4-H Club members put $6,000,000 of their own savings in War Bonds and Stamps and sold $2,500,000 worth of War Savings to their neighbors. Nearly a quarter million members of Future Farmers of America invested more than $1,500,000.

Spurred by the realization that the financial welfare of farm families the next 20 years depends on how wisely they use today's higher incomes from increased food and other wartime production, both groups have set their goals still higher for 1943.

These farm youths are building financial reserves, and urging their parents to do the same, for after-the-war necessities, to meet financial emergencies and to help them get started in college.

They're building reserves today for tomorrow's farm buildings and for the other things they will need when they're tomorrow's farmers and homemakers.

His Pigs Go to War

Melody of World War Days Revived In "Me and My Gal"

Judy Garland and clever players of today carry audiences back to the glories of the vaudeville of yesterday, in a vivid romance with the varieties as a glittering background, in "For Me and My Gal," to show at the Cameron Sunday and Monday. The picture serves to introduce to the screen Gene Kelly, New York stage sensation in "Pal Joey," as her latest partner. Miss Garland plays her first adult role and aside from intriguing song and dance appearances has poignant dramatic episodes which she handles compellingly.

The story opens in small time vaudeville in 1915, with Miss Garland as a young singer, Kelly as a clown juggler. They find a song hit, become partners, fail in love, and vow to marry when they achieve that ambition of all vaudevillians, and play the Palace Theatre in New York.

Their courtship is amid various vaudeville acts in various theatres. Then the World War starts, and Kelly is called on the eve of their triumph, a Palace engagement. Desperate, he tries to delay the call by injurying his hand; is renounced by Miss Garland, whose brother has been killed in France, and finally redeems himself overseas, where she has gone as an entertainer, by an act of supreme heroism.

The vaudeville sequences bring to new life such famous vaudeville songs as "For Me and My Gal," "Oh You Beautiful Doll," "After You've Gone," "How You Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm?" "Ballin' the Jack" and many others. Martha Eggert, glamorous star from Europe, making her American screen debut, sings a Strauss medley with a ballet of dancing violinists in an elaborate spectacle. Miss Garland and Kelly figure in some whirlwind dancing and singing numbers.

Other principals are George Murphy, Ben Blue, Lucile Norman, Richard Quine, Keenan Wynn and Horace McNally. Wm. Daniels embellished the story with beautiful photography and George Stoll handled the musical direction with fidelity to vaudeville in its heyday.

Pvt. Jack DuBois is here on a week's furlough visiting his wife and baby and will return to Kessler Field Biloxi, Miss., where he is in training in the Air Corps. His many friends here were glad to welcome his return to Cameron for the time, and wish for him a safe return.

WARTIME FOOD NEWS, flashed from Washington

Sponsored by the
GAS REFRIGERATOR

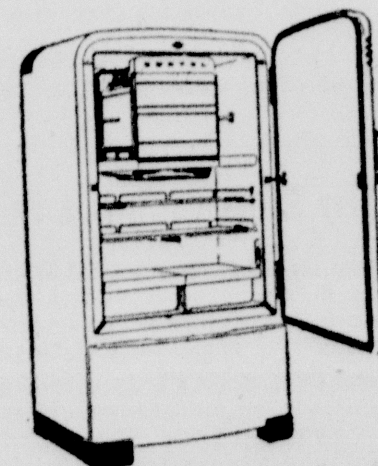

Although Servel, Inc., cannot make any more of the world's silent refrigerators* till we win the war, the manufacturers are putting on this national radio program in the interest of nutrition on America's dinner tables.

*Since Gas refrigerators can operate in the middle of desert or tropic jungle (using a tiny kerosene flame instead of gas), the armed forces are using them in field hospitals.

Billie Burke, the actress, furnishes the comedy. Alice White, the dietitian, straightens her out.

They give questions and answers on wartime food problems, like the following: "How can I use up the bacon drippings in my cooking?" ... "Use bacon drippings for frying eggs, potatoes, liver, and apples; it adds a fine flavor to boot. Also use it for seasoning potato soup, for vegetables, and for dried beans. If you render the bacon fat, it makes a flawless shortening in biscuits, muffins, chocolate cakes, spice cakes, and pastry."

Tune in for comic relief and practical kitchen news.

Ginger Rogers Teams With Milland In Milan Sunday Bill

Ginger Rogers is throwing that little-girl sailor hat she wears in her new film, "The Major and the Minor," right smack into the center of the ring for another Academy Award. As the "minor" who fools Ray Milland, the Major, into making all kinds of a fool of himself over her, Ginger is said to top any of her many marvelous performances.

The Paramount comedy, which comes Sunday to the Milan Theatre, brings the two popular stars together for the first time, and from all accounts their team work hits new heights of humor. The work of each as a comedian is well-known to picture fans; together there is no doubt of the fact that they must be terrific.

Not only is "The Major and the Minor" a first for Ginger Rogers and Ray Milland. It is also the first directorial effort of Billy Wilder.

It was Wilder and his script-partner, Charles Brackett, who wrote the screen play for "The Major and the Minor," so it is no wonder that the film is as perfectly plotted as rumor has it to be.

The story is absolutely right for Ginger's talents. It shows her as a small-town girl disillusioned with New York. Suspecting that the big city wolves might be too much for her, she had put aside the exact sum it would take to get her back to her home town in Iowa. Unfortunately, however, while her back was turned, the big bad railroad company raised the fare, so Ginger finds herself at Grand Central Station five dollars short.

Never at a loss for an idea, Ginger takes her suitcase with her into the ladies' lounge and after a few quick, deft changes to her costume, emerges in the garb of a twelve-year-old. She manages to get a half-fare ticket, but on the train runs into difficulty convincing the conductors of her "minor" status. In trying to elude them she takes refuge in what she believes to be an empty drawing room but which turns out, instead, to be occupied by the very personable Ray Milland, a Major who, because of an eye defect, is relegated to teaching at a military school.

The Major is completely taken in by the "minor," swallows her enormously tall tale hook, line and sinker and puts her up for the night in his lower berth, obligingly taking the upper.

Milland's fiancée, Rita Johnson comes with her father, a Colonel and head of the military academy, to surprise Ray but are themselves surprised by the female in his drawing room. Rita, in a rage, rushes from the scene of the crime.

Milland, realizing he must square himself with her father, begs Ginger to accompany him to the academy so that everyone may see she is a perfectly harmless little twelve-year-old. Ginger, her heart already on the skids to the Major continues the masquerade for his sake.

The week end she is forced to spend among the adolescent cadet Casanovas—Milland's embarrassing attraction to someone he believes to be a mere child—Ginger's encounter with Rita's sister, Diana Lynn, a real twelve-year-old whom she doesn't fool for a moment—are just a few of the hilarious situations which are said to abound in the picture.

DAY BY DAY Things We Want To Say

Commenting on the showing made by the City of Cameron in the current War Bond Drive the Temple Telegram has this to say:

Representing Milam county, Cameron by itself put Temple and Bell county on or perhaps under the back seat Thursday, in the second War Loan drive.

By mid-morning, Cameron's sales had passed $600,000, District Chairman Oxsheer Smith announced. Milam county's quota was but $354,000, but the county disdained that figure and set its own goal at $600,000. Since other Milam county towns have not yet returned in complete reports, it appears that the county would go over the million-dollar mark.

Milam's aim is to furnish the funds to buy a big bomber, the "Spirit of Milam," and four fighter planes to be named for Cameron, Rockdale, Thorn-dale and Buckholts.

"That Cameron report makes me blush, and it ought to do the same to every Temple and Bell county resident," said Temple Chairman J. W. Marrs when told of Cameron's remarkable feat. "It looks like Cameron alone is going to sell more than all of Bell county."

The Bell county quota is $1,040,000, and the most optimistic estimates Thursday were that not more than one-third of that amount has been sold.

Mr. Marrs said that unofficial reports indicated Temple's sales since the drive opened Monday totalled a little less than $200,000. Temple's quota is $800,000.

Plans were being shaped to give the Temple and Bell county drive new impetus, evidently badly needed.

No one in Cameron doubts Temple will meet its obligations under the War Bond quota, nor will Bell county fall down in what it is expected to do. If there is any room for criticism of the county's failure to manifest proper enthusiasm, it might be said that of all counties in Texas Bell has best been the recipient of lavish government consideration in the allocation of war's industrial benefits. Cameron was turned away from the gates of Washington with an empty basket while Temple plucked the plums. Cameron stands by and serves. We go into our pockets each week to entertain the service men and we now demonstrate to the world in our bond sales that we are behind the war effort no matter how badly we may have fared as an also ran in the race for military establishments. Temple can do better than what early reports indicate and Temple will do better. Rich benefits have accrued to Bell County. It would be commendable if Temple and Bell County came through on a basis commensurate with what the government has done for them.

American People Face Acid Test in Treasury's 2nd War Loan To Raise 13 Billion Dollars in Three Weeks

The Nation Dare Not Fail in This Greatest Financing Task in History—"They Give Their Lives—You Lend Your Money."

Washington, D. C.—Coming as it does upon the heels of income tax payments, the people of America will face an acid test this month when the Treasury's Second War Loan drive opens April 12 with an objective of thirteen billion dollars to be raised through sale of Government securities.

A substantial part of this huge financing, the most stupendous ever undertaken by any government in the world's history, must be loaned by people in ordinary walks of life.

High Government officials have pointed out that the nation must not fail in this duty to our men on the battle fronts who are now carrying the offensive to the enemy at every stage. It is obvious to every thinking man and woman that as the United Nations take this offensive against the dictators, the cost of war operations increases in proportion.

The American people must no longer think of war costs in terms of equipping a soldier, building a tank or plane or a ship. We must now think in terms of the cost of battles, invasions and new offensives. Attacking armies cost more money than equipping that army and we must meet that increased cost by buying more War Bonds and Second War Loan Securities.

They Give Their Lives.

It is not only necessary that the American people left here at home assume this additional participation in the war effort—it is an honor to do so . . . for we here at home can do no less than attempt to approach the sacrifices of our brave men out on the fighting fronts to whom the last great measure of sacrifice is but a daily offering. They give their lives . . . we are asked only to lend our money.

And that is the theme of the Second War Loan, "They Give Their Lives—You Lend Your Money."

Financial experts who know monetary conditions in the nation point out that at the present time there is in liquid funds, cash and commercial bank deposits over and above taxes and present investment in Government Bonds, and over and above what can be bought this year because of restrictions and rationing . . . approximately 40 billions of dollars which should go into Government Bonds.

It should be the objective of every American to invest these loose dollars, idle dollars, in Government securities, not only from a patriotic standpoint, but from the standpoint of their own financial security. There is available during the Second War Loan a type of Security to fit every pocketbook.

Are Wild Dollars

Every dollar of these forty billions of dollars available, which is not invested in Government securities during this War Loan Drive is a "wild" dollar which, together with its mates, will tend to increase inflation. Uncontrolled inflation might raise the cost of living to a point where the dollar is worthless. It can happen. It happened in Germany after the last war when the price of a loaf of bread cost more than an annual wage.

Invested in Government securities, your dollar will work for you. It will hold down inflation because it is harnessed in war work; it will help buy food, transportation, munitions for our boys on the front lines and it will be earning interest that, together with your original loan, will come back to you later to help you buy the things you cannot buy today . . . to insure your peace of the future.

Remember those boys out there . . . in Tunisia . . . in the South Pacific . . . They give their lives—You lend your money.

Lt. Col. Wilton B. Moats, Ordnance Department, Camp Hood, his wife and son have moved into the Roy Epper-son home on North Central Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Boedeker and daughter, Loretta, of Caldwell spent Sunday in Cameron visiting relatives and friends.

ALLIES SCORE GREAT VICTORY OFF TUNISIA

Allied Airmen have scored the greatest victory of the African war in the air.

Sunday in air battles over the Mediterranean and off Tunisia 85 German planes were shot down, more than 50 of them Junkers transport planes carrying enemy personnel.

The Americans lost 11 planes.

Vast superiority of the American flyer over the German has been well demonstrated. The Americans, many of them Texans, swarmed into the skies and shot down the Junkers like black birds as 85 of them fell into the sea and all aboard perished.

There was some speculation over whether the planes were landing reinforcements or carrying German troops out.

Sicily and Sardinia were heavily bombed over the week end.

There was a lull in land fighting but the Reds were able to throw back the Germans on the Eastern front.

The airmen of the United Nations in the South Pacific kept up their score against the Japs with another ship sunk. Kiska, off Alaska has been bombed again.

In the Mediterranean sea battle Sunday it was said the Americans ran out of ammunition and could not complete the job. It was said that the Germans took 100 ships into the air well protected by fighter craft.

The Americans, riding their fleet fighter ships like range men ride cow horses made a field day of the battle.

It was the largest single battle loss yet sustained by the Germans over the Mediterranean.

Ed Gunn, District Attorney, visited Rockdale on official business today, Friday and will return to his office late this afternoon.

America's Food Emergency

A Statement by Santa Fe

United States facing most critical "crop year" in its history.

During the coming months, the need for more food may be greater than the need for more guns, tanks and planes.

Serving, as it does, "the breadbasket of America," the livestock and meat industry, and the great fruit and vegetable areas of California and the Southwest, Santa Fe pledges its all-out effort in the production and mobilization of food.

What Santa Fe Is Doing

Santa Fe employs are planting Victory Gardens along their railroad's 13,199 miles of right-of-way.

Everything that rolls on the Santa Fe is being kept in fighting trim.

Old cars with good running gear are being rebuilt into sleek new gondolas.

Many Santa Fe refrigerator cars that used to go back "dead-head" now hurry back loaded with other freight.

Cars are few and hours are precious. Every hour a freight car stands idle holds back food or other vital war freight from folks who need it. Every unused cubic foot squanders vital space.

The supply experts of the Army and Navy, the ODT, and the Interstate Commerce Commission Bureau of Service are all focusing on this problem.

How Shippers Are Helping

Shippers are helping and can continue to help (1) by maximum loading; (2) by quicker loading; (3) by quicker unloading.

More than 57,000 Santa Fe folks join with the farmers, the livestock producers, the shippers, and the consumers of all America to help meet the greatest food crisis our nation has ever faced.

They're On The Job, Too!

For years the Agricultural Development Department of Santa Fe has cooperated with growers all along the line, for greater production per acre, through better seeds and better cultural methods. For example:

The people of the middle Rio Grande know how the desert has been converted into paying crops.

The folks in Blue Water Valley of western New Mexico know how the production of vegetables has increased from 86 to 1076 carloads in the past three years.

The potato growers of Kern County,

California, know how Santa Fe cooperated in stamping out ring rot and blight.

This year, the people in the Texas Panhandle are bringing in their first harvest of waxy kafir which promises to produce the starch for tapioca and other important products that formerly came from the cassava roots of Java.

In the present national food emergency, these people of Santa Fe's Agricultural Development Department are working harder than ever, doing everything they can to help food growers all along the line.

The picture serves to introduce to the screen Gene Kelly, New York stage sensation in "Pal Joey," as her latest partner. Miss Garland plays her first adult role and aside from intriguing song and dance appearances has poignant dramatic episodes which she handles compellingly.

The story opens in small time vaudeville in 1915, with Miss Garland as a young singer, Kelly as a clown juggler. They find a song hit, become partners, fall in love, and vow to marry when they achieve that ambition of all vaudevillians, and play the Palace Theatre in New York.

Their courtship is amid various vaudeville acts in various theatres. Then the World War starts, and Kelly is called on the eve of their triumph, a Palace engagement. Desperate, he tries to delay the call by injuring his hand; is renounced by Miss Garland, whose brother has been killed in France, and finally redeems himself overseas, where she has gone as an entertainer, by an act of supreme heroism.

The vaudeville sequences bring to new life such famous vaudeville songs as "For Me and My Gal," "Oh You Beautiful Doll," "After You've Gone," "How You Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm?" "Ballin' the Jack" and many others. Martha Eggert, glamorous star from Europe, making her American screen debut, sings a Strauss medley with a ballet of dancing violinists in an elaborate spectacle. Miss Garland and Kelly figure in some whirlwind dancing and singing numbers.

Other principals are George Murphy, Ben Blue, Lucile Norman, Richard Quine, Keenan Wynn and Horace McNally. Wm. Daniels embellished the story with beautiful photography and George Stoll handled the musical direction with fidelity to vaudeville in its heyday.
